ORDER

On October 4, 2011, respondent filed a motion to further delay his actual suspension, and the State Bar filed opposition on October 12 and 13, 2011. Respondent's period of actual suspension ordered by the Supreme Court on April 27, 2011, was previously stayed until October 15, 2011, and then temporarily stayed pending a ruling on respondent's motion.

For good cause, respondent's motion is granted, in part. The court is concerned about the ongoing delay of imposing the discipline ordered by the Supreme Court. Accordingly, respondent's suspension will be stayed until the earliest of the following: January 31, 2012, or the jury renders its verdict or the matter is otherwise resolved in Jneid, et al v. TriPole Corporation, et al, Orange County Superior Court, Case No. 02CC00182. If the jury renders a verdict or the Jneid case is resolved prior to January 31, 2012, within 3 days of the resolution respondent must file with this court written notice, at which time, the court will issue an order lifting the stay and imposing the suspension.
