On June 4, 2015, Robert Dickrell aka Robert Degrell (“Respondent”), filed a motion requesting relief or, in the alternative, an extension of time to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs assessed in the above-captioned case. Respondent sought relief on grounds of financial hardship. On June 12, 2015, the State Bar of California, Office of the Chief Trial Counsel (“State Bar”), by and through Senior Trial Counsel Charles A. Murray, filed an opposition to Respondent’s motion asserting objection to an order granting a waiver of assessed costs and an extension of time to pay his disciplinary costs.

Based on the court’s review of Respondent’s motion and the State Bar’s opposition thereto, the court finds that Respondent has established hardship, special circumstances, and other good cause under rule 5.130(B) of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar as to warrant the following orders:

Respondent is granted this fourth and last extension of time to pay the disciplinary costs. In view of Respondent's financial hardship, the court orders Respondent to pay the disciplinary costs in three equal installments along with her membership fees commencing with the 2016 billing cycle. In accordance with Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, one-third of the costs must be paid with Respondent's membership fees for the years 2016, 2017 and 2018.

It is further ORDERED that if Respondent fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134.) The payment of costs is enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
