In the Matter of

MANSOUR SIG HADDAD

A Member of the State Bar.

ORDER

On July 30, 2009, respondent filed a petition to set aside the interim suspension order filed on July 16, 2009, which was issued as a result of respondent's felony conviction of violating Health and Safety Code section 11350, subdivision (a). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 9.10(a); Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 321(a)(3).) On August 4, 2009, the State Bar filed its response to the petition, contending it does not oppose it as long as respondent is required to submit quarterly reports to the State Bar Office of Probation confirming compliance with his criminal probation conditions.

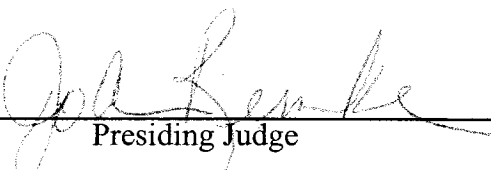

Finding good cause, the petition is granted, in part, and the interim suspension order is stayed subject to the following conditions:

1. Respondent must submit written quarterly reports to the State Bar Office of Probation on each January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10 of the period of his probation in the subject criminal matter, or until such time as this pending disciplinary proceeding is resolved. Within 10 days of service of this order, respondent must contact the State Bar Office of Probation in Los Angeles to review these conditions.
2. Respondent must comply with all conditions of probation imposed in the underlying criminal matter.

3. If respondent obtains employment as an attorney or begins to practice law in any capacity, within 15 days of beginning to practice, respondent must obtain an attorney monitor who will be able to observe his condition in and about the practice of law. The attorney monitor must be approved by the State Bar Office of Probation. Respondent will promptly review with the attorney monitor this order. The attorney monitor must make at least one monthly scheduled meeting with respondent at respondent's place of employment or law office. The attorney monitor also must make at least one monthly unannounced office visit. The attorney monitor should review respondent's case load, the hours worked per week, and his general working routine, including his punctuality and ability to meet deadlines. Respondent must cooperate fully with the monitor. The monitor must provide quarterly written status reports (January 10, April 10, July 10, and October 10) to the State Bar Office of Probation.
4. In each quarterly report submitted to the State Bar Office of Probation, respondent must state under penalty of perjury whether he has complied with: (1) all conditions of probation in the subject criminal matter, including all drug testing, during the preceding calendar quarter; and (2) the attorney monitor condition of this order.
5. Respondent must answer fully, promptly and truthfully any inquired of the State Bar Office of Probation and provide the Office, upon its request, with any and all documents reliant to the subject criminal matter and the conditions of probation in that matter.

A copy of this order will be served on the State Bar Office of Probation. The Office of Probation is directed to: (1) monitor respondent's compliance with this order without delay, and (2) provide the court with immediate notification of any issues of noncompliance. If the court receives notice that respondent has failed to comply with any of the foregoing conditions, the court may lift the stay and place respondent on interim suspension without further notice.
