_____)	FILING OF MONEY JUDGMENT

On February 20, 2018, respondent Catherine Irene Denevi (respondent) sought relief from or an extension of time to comply with the order assessing disciplinary costs in State Bar Court case No. 14-O-03661. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130.) Respondent's motion was based on financial hardship. (See Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.130(B).) Respondent also requested a stay on the filing of a money judgment against her for nonpayment. On March 7, 2018, the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California (State Bar) filed a response indicating that it did not oppose an extension of time for respondent to pay costs.

After reviewing the parties' pleadings, the court issues the following orders:

1. Respondent's motion for relief from payment of disciplinary costs is DENIED, no good cause having been shown;
2. Good cause having been shown, the court GRANTS an extension of time for respondent to comply with the order to pay disciplinary costs. The court orders that respondent's time to pay the remaining disciplinary costs associated with case No. 14-O-03661 be extended and that one-third of said costs is to be paid with respondent's annual State Bar membership fees for the years 2019, 2020, and 2021. The court further ORDERS that if respondent fails to pay any installment of disciplinary costs within the time provided herein or as may be modified by the State Bar Court pursuant to Business and Professions Code section 6086.10, subdivision (c), the remaining balance of the costs is due and payable immediately unless relief has been granted under the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.134). The payment of costs remains enforceable both as provided in Business and Professions Code section 6140.7 and as a money judgment.

3. Respondent's motion for stay on the filing of a money judgment against her is DENIED as moot.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
