On April 3, 2018, Ingrid Marie Causey (Respondent) and the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar of California, by and through Murray B. Greenberg, Esq., Senior Trial Counsel, filed a joint motion to correct an error in the stipulation submitted by the parties on October 25, 2017. Pursuant to rule 5.300 et seq. of the Rules of Procedure of the State Bar of California, the parties are seeking to modify a probation condition in the stipulation which states that "Respondent must comply with all conditions of probation imposed in the underlying criminal matter and must so declare under penalty of perjury in conjunction with any quarterly report to be filed with the Office of Probation." In light of the fact that the parties agree that Respondent was not subject to an underlying criminal proceeding, the parties seek to modify the above-stated probation condition.

The court finds that the requested probation condition modification is consistent with protecting the public, Respondent's successful rehabilitation, and maintaining the integrity of the legal profession. Good cause having been shown, the modification of the stipulation is

APPROVED, and Respondent's conditions of probation in the above-referenced matter are modified as follows:

1. On page 6 of the disciplinary stipulation, filed November 7, 2017, the check in the paragraph 9 box is deleted, and Respondent is shall NOT be required to comply with any criminal matter probationary conditions, as none apply.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
