A Member of the State Bar, No. 297679.)
_____)

On December 7, 2018, respondent Ajay Paul Sahni filed a motion for relief from interim suspension that became effective on June 25, 2018, due to his criminal conviction for two alcohol-related felony offenses. On January 2, 2019, respondent also filed a request for judicial notice of a hearing judge's order that if respondent completes the Alternative Discipline Program, in which he is engaged, he would receive a 90-day actual suspension. On January 3, 2019, the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar filed its non-opposition to respondent's motion for judicial notice and his motion for relief from the interim suspension.

Finding good cause and noting OCTC's non-opposition, respondent's motions are granted. The interim suspension order filed June 1, 2018 (effective June 25, 2018) is terminated, effective upon the filing of this order.¹

Presiding Judge

¹ This order does not limit or alter another suspension order, if any, imposed on respondent in other cases.
