_____	)

On May 23, 2018, respondent filed a motion to stay the order of interim suspension filed on May 4, 2018 (effective on May 29, 2018) as a result of his misdemeanor convictions.

Respondent filed a declaration in support of his motion.

The suspension order filed May 4, 2018, and effective May 29, 2018, is temporarily stayed so that the full Review Department may act upon respondent's motion, together with the State Bar Office of Chief Trial Counsel's response, if any, which is ordered due by June 5, 2018, so the matter can be heard as soon as possible on the motions calendar. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.162(C) [Presiding Judge may order temporary relief to allow Review Department to act on the merits of motion]; rule 5.29(A) [court may order time limits for filing shortened for good cause].)
