STATE BAR COURT OF CALIFORNIA

REVIEW DEPARTMENT

IN BANK

In the Matter of)	Case No. 17-C-02392
)
DAVID THADDEUS ACHORD,)	ORDER
)
A Member of the State Bar, No. 200703.)

On July 19, 2017, this court suspended respondent from the practice of law, effective August 14, 2017, because he was convicted of a misdemeanor violation of Penal Code section 148, subdivision (a)(1) (resisting an officer), and a felony violation of Penal Code section 273.5, subdivision (a) (inflicting corporal injury – spouse). (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6102, subd. (a).)

On November 29, 2017, a “Stipulation re Facts, Conclusions of Law and Disposition” (stipulation) was filed, in which respondent and the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar (OCTC) agreed that respondent must be actually suspended for 90 days, and that respondent will be credited for the period of his interim suspension toward the stipulated period of actual suspension. The hearing judge approved the stipulation with modifications on November 29, 2017, and noted in her order that because “respondent will receive credit for his period of interim suspension toward his period of actual suspension,” he “will not serve any period of prospective actual suspension after the effective date of the Supreme Court order in this matter.”

On December 4, 2017, respondent filed a motion to vacate his interim suspension. OCTC filed a notice of non-opposition that same day.

Finding good cause, the motion is granted, and respondent's interim suspension imposed pursuant to our July 19, 2017, order is vacated on the date this order is filed. (Bus. & Prof. Code, § 6102, subd. (a); Rules Proc. of State Bar, rules 5.162, 5.342(D).) This order does not limit or alter a suspension order imposed against respondent in any other discipline or regulatory matter.¹

PURCELL

Presiding Judge

¹ Our records do not show that respondent is currently under suspension in another discipline or regulatory matter.
