On May 4, 2018, this court filed an order of interim suspension, effective May 29, 2018, due to respondent's three misdemeanor convictions involving moral turpitude. On May 23, 2018, respondent filed a motion to stay the order of interim suspension. On May 24, 2018, this court filed an Order temporarily staying respondent's suspension, so that the full Review Department could act on respondent's motion. On May 24, 2018, the Office of Chief Trial Counsel of the State Bar filed its opposition to respondent's motion to stay the interim suspension.

Having considered all pleadings in this matter, respondent's request to stay the order of interim suspension is denied for lack of good cause. (Rules Proc. of State Bar, rule 5.162(D).) Respondent's temporary stay imposed by our order filed May 24, 2018, is terminated five days from the date of service of this order.
